1. Radio Cowboy

Ain't My First Rodeo", which tells of Rob's past as a professional equestrian athlete, made it into several US radio charts in February 2019, followed by the February release 2019 "Carry The Wind", which was able to stay at #1 on the US National Radio Hits Charts for 3 weeks in October 2019. Currently, his March release "Dust" is running as the third official radio release in the USA and since January 24th 2020, coincidentally also the release date of his debut album, sitting at #1 in the Country FM/AM Radio Charts of newmusicweekly.com. The current release was published on January 24, 2020, a milestone in Rob's music career, his debut album is a testimony to his talent, tenacity and his humble art. Radio Cowboy share // bc

Rob was in Nashville for a few weeks to record his new songs at Saxman Studios and Sound Emporium Studios, both located in Music City. It was an incredible feeling for him to see his songs brought to life and all that comes with it. The abilities and talent of Rob Georg is unquestionable, and every song is more beautiful than the last. This fabulous album is available via Bandcamp in digital form on iTunes, Amazon, GooglePlay, etc., as physical CD on Amazon, also in your country. Distribution through www.feiyr.com

Radio Cowboy is an album of soulful and introspective verse, it is warm and is imbued with love for life
